Christmas in Peterfield 2011 YOUR HELP IS NEEDED

This year we are doing things a little bit differently to make sure we have a fair and equitable gift for each Petersfield family.

Shandon youth are collecting 100 $50 gift cards from Wal-Mart to include in each family gift box. Youth will shop, pack each gift box and deliver them to the families in Petersfield on December 10.

The generous support of our Shandon family is critical for us to collect these cards. Please talk to your Sunday school class and other church groups. Drop-off your $50 Wal-Mart gift card or $50 donation in room 204/205 in the Youth Zone on Sunday morning by December 4. (or make arrangements with Meredith Gammon). For questions: Casey Fields, cfields@masc.sc 206-9516 or Meredith Gammon, 256-8383, mgammon@shandon-umc.org.

Why Blue for Advent?

Everyone seems to appreciate the new blue paraments we are using for the season of Advent in our sanctuary. But a few questions have come up about the use of the color blue for the Advent season.

While the traditional color for Advent is purple, there is a growing interest in and acceptance of the color blue as an alternative. The United Methodist Book of Worship identifies purple or blue as appropriate colors for Advent.

The genesis of the introduction of the color of blue into the liturgical colors comes from continued reflection on the calendar of the Christian year, particularly on the season of Advent. Here is how the reasoning goes: Advent is a season of preparation that anticipates both Bethlehem and the consummation of history in the second coming of Jesus Christ. Since this anticipation is characterized by hope — in contrast to the repentance characteristic of Lent — the color for the season should not be purple, with its mood of solemnity and somberness, but blue with its hopefulness.

Purple traditionally has been the color for Advent and Lent. Now with our blue paraments we will have distinct colors for each season.

The symbols on our paraments are also impressive. The equilateral cross is the strongest of the well known Christian cross forms, as well as the symbol of sacrifice and salvation. The three gold ribbons represent the trinity. The basket weaving of the ribbons in the center of the cross represents the tightly intertwined elements of the whole world and all points: north, south, east and west. The style of the cross is sometimes called the sun cross associated with the brightest star, Jesus Christ. The four white stars represent the four weeks of Advent. The image on the material the paraments are made of is called Agnus Dei or Lamb of God.

Advent is a liturgical season rich in symbolism. The environment in our sanctuary during the Advent/Christmas season creates an environment filled with symbolism and offers us a wonderful environment of prayer and song, of Scripture, fellowship and worship.

I look forward to seeing each of you in one of our three worship services each Sunday during December.

Join Us During Advent

LOVEFEAST

Sunday, December 11 at 5:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary

Be a part of this annual celebration filled with beautiful music by the Chancel Choir, Orchestra and Wesley Ringers and sharing bread, coffee and warm fellowship.

Childcare is available for ages three and under (Reservations required). Contact Heather Corley at Hdcorley123@yahoo.com.

The Lovefeast has been an important part of the Methodist heritage in America and in England for over 200 years. Since apostolic times, Christians observed a common meal called “agape” from the Greek word, meaning, love. The custom was brought to America by the Moravians, and John Wesley introduced the Lovefeast to the Methodists. Lovefeast continues as an important part of Christian worship. Please bring non-perishable food items for Harvest Hope.

GLORIA

Sunday, December 18 at 8:45 and 11:00 a.m. in the Sanctuary

Experience magnificent music by the Chancel Choir and Orchestra.

Join us for this inspiring service as the Chancel Choir and Orchestra present Antonio Vivaldi’s “Gloria.”

LOS POSADAS

Monday, December 19 at 6:30 p.m. at Brookland UMC

A Mexican tradition re-enacting Mary and Joseph’s difficult journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem in search of shelter. Our congregation is invited to join with the Hispanic Ministry of West Columbia. Participants (including children dressed in Biblical costumes) will walk by candlelight as a group to designated neighborhood homes led by an “angel” as they search for shelter for Mary and Joseph. Event will conclude with traditional Mexican foods and worship service at Brookland UMC.

The Christmas List, by Richard Paul Evans

Book Discussion on Tuesday, December 6, 7:00-8:00 p.m.

“The Christmas List focuses on a greedy and disliked businessman, James Kier, whose goal in life is to make money and climb the ladder of success. When he finally does embark on a journey of righting wrongs, he finds that forgiveness is not always forthcoming and some wrongs just cannot be righted. For James and the reader, this journey is one of great emotion and self-reflection.”

Discussing a book is a great way to get to know other people and build relationships. At the December 6 meeting, we’ll choose books for the next six months. Come and bring suggestions!

POINSETTIAS FOR THE SANCTUARY AND LIFELINE

If you would like to place a poinsettia in the sanctuary or at LifeLine for Christmas in honor or in memory of a loved-one, please complete this form and place it in an offering envelope with check or cash and return in the offering plate or to Winifred Rodgers. You may also make a donation to the landscape fund. The cost of each poinsettia is $15.50 and the order deadline is December 4.
