GAME TIME!

Super Bowl Sunday has become one of the nation's biggest days for parties, celebration and fun. Yet for one in six Americans, it is just another day they are living without enough food. You can help!

Now through Super Bowl Sunday, youth across the nation are using the game to raise awareness and much-needed support for hunger-relief organizations through Souper Bowl of Caring.

Next weekend, Shandon youth are volunteering at Harvest Hope Food Bank as part of the city-wide Service Blitz. Then on Super Bowl Sunday, you will see them holding soup pots after worship. Youth will be collecting donations for Harvest Hope so please bring a dollar (or more!) to give. Harvest Hope provides critical help to individuals and families in our own neighborhoods.

Be Sure to Pay Attention

Christ prods and probes us in a variety of ways through scripture, worship, the silent voice of our conscience and certainly through others whom we observe and listen to. Consider the following from the life of John Wesley.

During Wesley's student days, a porter came to his door one evening and asked to speak to him. During the conversation, Wesley observed the man's thin coat. It was a cold night, and Wesley suggested he had better get another coat. "This is the only coat I have," the porter replied, "and I thank God for it."

Wesley asked the man if he had eaten and the porter answered, "I have had nothing to eat today but water to drink, but I thank God for that."

Wesley, growing uneasy in the man's presence, reminded him that he would have to get to his quarters soon or be locked out. "Then what would you thank God for?" Wesley asked. "I will thank him that I have dry stones to lie upon," said the porter.

Wesley was deeply moved by the man's sincerity and he said to him, "You thank God when you have nothing to wear, nothing to eat, and no bed to lie on. What else do you thank God for?"

The man replied, "I thank God that he has given me life, a heart to love him and a desire to serve him."

After the man had left with a coat from Wesley's closet, some money for food, and word of appreciation for the witness he had made, Wesley wrote something like this in his journal, "I shall never forget that porter. He convinced me, there is something in religion to which I am a stranger."

It is a good idea to pay attention to other Christians who witness to us through their attitude and behaviors. Through them, Christ will prod and probe and we will be inspired to grow as disciples of Jesus Christ.

SHANDON BOOK CLUB IN THE GARDEN OF BEASTS, BY ERIK LARSON

Tuesday, February 7

In the Garden of Beasts is a riveting story that gives new insight into the climate, complex events and characters in Nazi Berlin in the 1930s when Hitler's brutal agenda came into power. This non-fiction literary masterpiece chronicles the experience of the American ambassador to Germany at that time. A real page turner!

In the Shandon Book Club, anyone is welcome to join the discussion anytime: 1st Tuesdays, 7:00-8:00 p.m. in Betty Bruner Building, room 221.

GOING GREEN

TURN OUT THE LIGHTS!

Our church budget this year for utilities is $132,500. The U.S. Department of Energy estimates that 11% of utility costs are devoted to lighting. Our church campus includes many rooms and a host of daily meetings. We can have an impact on utility costs if we all make an effort to turn the lights off in rooms or areas not in use. "It's the little things we do that can make a big difference!"
