RECEPTION REV. CARLY WICKLUND

Join us following the Traditional and LifeLine services on Sunday, June 16, as we express our appreciation to Carly Wicklund. This will be her last Sunday at Shandon after faithfully serving with us for five years.

Carly will preach at both the 8:45 and 11:00 a.m. services in the Sanctuary. Following the 11:00 a.m. service, there will be a reception in Player Hall in the Dunn-Smith Ministry Center. This will be a time for us to show our love and appreciation to Carly as well as to wish her much joy and happiness as she enters a new phase in her ministry.

Saying Goodbye ...

SISTERS AND BROTHERS... WITH BOTH EXCITEMENT AND JOY I WRITE THIS LETTER TO YOU, THE PEOPLE OF SHANDON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH AS I PREPARE TO SAY, "GOODBYE."

God holds the future

I am not often without words, but the need to accurately compress the last five years of ministry into a succinct letter has left me unsure as to where to begin.

At the ripe age of twenty-four, fresh out of seminary y'all welcomed me into your church community with open arms. I have had the privilege and honor of journeying with you at the utmost joyous and wonderful celebrations. I was entrusted with the task of bringing a couple and family together through marriage. I was invited only hours after some of you welcomed new life into this world to hold and pray over your new love, and I looked your beautiful children in their eyes as I affirmed that through baptism they had been claimed and named by God. I have also shared challenging seasons and moments with some of you. From dreaded diagnoses to praying with your loved ones as they prepare to be accepted into the loving arms of our Creator, to celebrating loved ones' lives we have experienced these difficult events together. This church community showered me with kindness and grace as I learned through trial and error how to be your pastor, and I am still learning. I have not been the only one loving and serving in this congregation, far from it – many of you have showed me what it means to love one another in seasons of celebration and despair.

Two and a half years ago I announced to the congregation that I would be diving into the unknown sea of foster care. We celebrated together when Baby J entered into my life and y'all helped me put the pieces of my heart back together when he left. Regardless of what the future lays ahead for me in regards to my vocation, Shandon United Methodist Church will always be the first church I served and the place I found and developed my pastoral voice. But with all things, this chapter has come to a close and a new one will soon begin.

Now I will start a new learning process, as I begin a Clinical Pastoral Education residency at Roper St. Francis Hospital in Charleston. I will miss you and your loving families. I will miss the sweet hugs and excited greetings from our youngest disciples, but I know God is leading me towards a new direction and so I go with both anticipation and sorrow.

Soon you will have a new pastor to love and care for you and your families. On June 30th, Rev. Shannon Bullion will join the clergy staff as the Minister of Evangelism and Outreach. I know you will welcome her and her children Mackenzie (17) and Charlie (13) with hospitality and kindness just as you have with me, and I am hopeful about the many ways she will continue to shepherd this flock. I do not know what the future holds but I know God holds the future, and I believe God will continue to guide us all on the journey until we meet again.

Peace and gratitude, Rev. Carly Wicklund

LOOKING FOR PHOTOS

Shandon in Action

SHANDON IS A DYNAMIC, CONTEMPORARY CHURCH AND WE WANT TO “SHOW” IT.

Share with the Shandon family and others.

All groups... Sunday school classes, women’s groups, UMW circles, men’s groups, etc. etc.... When you have an activity or event... cookout, mission project, etc., send us 3-10 candid photos to share with the Shandon family and others.

Please be mindful when you’re taking photos with outside groups, especially with children and youth, not to show specific faces of others outside of Shandon unless we have permission to use the photos.

Also, send a sentence or two about the activity so we’ll know a little something about it. This can be just a few sentences or even bulleted information if you’d like. Don’t worry about grammar details – we can edit. It can be “just the facts, ma’am (and sir).” We don’t want it to be complicated. Email them to mowen@shandon-umc.org.

We’ll be using the photos in various print and digital communications, including both internal and external communications, to “show” Shandon.

Photo Disclaimer

We will not use names of people with photos on social media. Videos posted may use names of adults if they know this is the purpose. Children and youth names will not be used at all with photos or videos posted on social media or the internet. Photos also will not be tagged on our social media.

If you do not want your photo or a member of your family’s photo to be used in Shandon’s communications, please contact Melanie Owen at mowen@shandon-umc.org or 256-8383, ext. 112 to complete a Photo Opt-Out Form.
