The Listening Place

“Let he who has ears to hear, use them.” Eight times in the gospels and eight times in the Book of Revelation we are reminded that it is just not enough to have ears—it is necessary to use them.

In one of his parables, Jesus compared our ears to soil. He told about a farmer who scattered seed (symbolic of the Word) in four different types of soil (symbolic of our ears). Some of our ears are like a hard road – unreceptive to the seed. Others have ears like rocky soil – we hear the Word but don’t allow it to take root. Still others have ears akin to a weed path – too overgrown, too thorny, with too much competition for the seed to have a chance. And then there are some who have ears that hear: well tilled, discriminate and ready to hear God’s voice.

Now in all four cases the seed is the same seed. The sower is the same sower. What’s different is not the message or the messenger – it’s the listener. And if the ratio in the story is significant, three fourths of the world isn’t listening.

It’s not that we don’t have ears; it’s that we don’t use them. Scripture has always placed a premium on hearing God’s Word. The great command from God through Moses began with the words, “Hear, O Israel: the Lord is One God.” Jesus urges us to learn to listen like sheep. “The sheep recognize the voice of the shepherd...they follow because they are familiar to the shepherd’s voice.”

There are a lot of voices in the world today competing for our attention: family, friends, the TV, the radio, CD players, sports analyst, and news commentators. Where does God fit in, is His Word important, does His Word contain the message of true life?

We can hear God’s word proclaimed at church, but not if we are not present. We can hear His voice in scripture but not if we fail to read our Bibles. Certainly the voice of God can be heard in daily devotions but not if we do not take time.

If we are going to listen to God we first have to give ourselves fully to him in faith trusting that his Word contains the lessons of true life. After we put our full trust in God we will listen and learn and grow in his likeness, which is the goal of Christianity.

I look forward to seeing every member of our church on Sunday morning as we gather at the listening place.

In Faith,
Michael Guffee, Sr.

HOLY WEEK

PALM SUNDAY worship services on March 24, at the 8:45 and 11:00 a.m. Sanctuary services will begin outside on the front lawn. After the opening liturgy, the whole congregation will process into the Sanctuary. If there is inclement weather, we will begin services, inside as usual.

The Children's Choirs will sing at the 11:00 a.m. service.

MAUNDY THURSDAY service of Holy Communion will be held at 7:00 p.m. on March 28 in the Sanctuary.

GOOD FRIDAY

The Chancel Choir will present, Theodore Dubois' "The Seven Last Words of Christ," on Good Friday, March 29 at 7:00 p.m. in our Sanctuary.

EASTER SUNDAY March 31

SERVICE OF HEALING DURING LIFELINE

Sunday, March 17, 11:05 a.m., Dunn-Smith Ministry Center Gym

It's a time when we honor God and confess our need for healing of all kinds –physical, mental, and emotional – as well as confession and forgiveness. During the service, all are invited to come forward for anointing. If members of the congregation know someone who is unable to be present, they can stand in for that individual to receive anointing.

ENTER JERUSALEM

An Interactive Holy Week Experience for Children & Adults

Sunday, March 24, Dunn-Smith Ministry Center Gym

Join us as we enter the city on Palm Sunday and visit craft/activity stations which remind us of significant events and places relevant to Holy Week. Biblical characters in costume will interact with participants and talk about the happenings during the week. Registration information is available through the education office by contacting Sam Apple, sapple@shandon-umc.org. A donation of $5 per family is appreciated and may be given at the event.

A WHOLENESS AND HEALING SERVICE

Sunday Evening

March 17, 6:00-6:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary

"Taize" music, with prayers, silent meditations and scripture readings and anointing with oil.

Please plan to attend and invite a friend.

Get Your Capital Campaign Information Packet

Capital Campaign Information Packets will be given out on Sunday mornings March 17, 24, and 31. A tear-off form will be placed in the bulletin for worship attendees to place their name. Complete the form and the form to one of several stations around our campus on those Sundays and place your signed tear-off form in a box on the table and receive an Information Packet. The packet will contain detail information regarding our capital campaign "BLESSED TO SERVE – Debt Free and Mission Forward." Church members are asked to take the packet home and read it carefully.

SHANDON'S LUNCH & LEARN 4th Tuesdays in Player Hall (12:30-1:30 p.m.)

On most 4th Tuesdays during the school year, Shandon will welcome influential guest leaders to lunch and talk with us about something they are passionate about. The purpose of Lunch & Learn is expressed in Hebrews 10:24: "And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together..." Like John Wesley, the leaders will undoubtedly motivate us "Do all the good you can...", as we hear how they deal with life issues and needs.

March 26: Jim Gandy, Chief Meteorologist, WLTX-TV

Topic: "Climate Matters: How climate change will affect us in Columbia, SC".

Mr. Gandy's Climate Matters series has generated a lot of national attention. In January, he received the Award for Excellence in Science Reporting by a Broadcast Meteorologist from the American Meteorological Society. Then in February he was featured in a story on NPR's Morning Edition (<http://www.npr.org/2013/02/19/171832641/forecasting-climate-with-a-chance-of-backlash>)

April 23: The Honorable Alan Wilson, Attorney General of SC (topic TBA)

MARCH MAN-NESS

This month, our fellowship night falls on the third Thursday, March 21, so come out for a little bit of March Madness. We'll meet in the gym with man-food and the giant screen, to touch base together and watch some basketball. Blake Buchanan is coordinating the food/drink, so contact him at blakebtiger96@yahoo.com to see what you should bring.

BBALL BRACKETS

On the theme of March Madness, men of all ages are invited to join the Sons of Thunder "Tournament Challenge" through ESPN.com, to compete to see who has the best bracket. Even if you're not a college basketball fan, take a shot and see what happens. The top-3 finishers will receive "gifts of honor," along with bragging rights. Visit the blog for details on signing up.

COOKOUT FOR KIDS

The Sons of Thunder have volunteered to help with the annual fundraising "Cookout for Kids" to benefit Epworth Children's Home. All men are challenged to enlist to help on April 26 & 27 as we cook meat, prepare plates, and fellowship together. More info to come later.

Discover God...Share with others...Have fun in faith... and Live-out being a Christian everyday—at home, school and play. Don't miss the adventure.

UMYF [United Methodist Youth Fellowship]

We will meet on Sunday evenings from 5:00-6:30 p.m.

1ST SUMO YOUTH EVENT! Sunday, March 24, 4:00-6:30 p.m.

We are having our first SUMO Youth Event. All youth are invited to come. We will meet in the parking lot by the gym! Here is what they need to bring: Everyone is getting a t-shirt—so if you could bring $8 to help offset that cost it would be much appreciated. Sign and return the Permission form: (found on the blog Post) Bring some fruit for us to give away during this event. Any and all fruit would be great!

ADULT MEETING ROUND 2 Wednesday, March 27, 6:15-7:30 p.m., Bruner 220

It is so very important for us to have a fruitful youth ministry. As our society continues to drift away from the Church, we need to create a program for our youth that shines as obvious as a city on a hill. Expressing this vision and gathering together as the adults for this program is critical for success. We hope you can clear off an hour and fifteen minutes of your Wednesday to help in providing a meaningful and life-changing youth ministry. If you were present for our meeting on March 6, you do not need to come to this meeting (unless you had to leave early or you just love meetings!). This meeting will be an exact replica of our first. Thanks in advance and Travis hopes to see you there!

SALKEHATCHIE FORMS ARE OUT

Link to the application. <http://shandonumyf.files.wordpress.com/2013/03/salkapplication-2013.pdf> .

We need your forms turned in ASAP! Shandon Outreach has been very generous to offer our students a $100 scholarship to help offset the cost of this wonderful mission. This means that the cost to you is $115. If you unfamiliar with Salkehatchie Summer Service, please give Travis a call at 256-8383, ext. 105.

In a nutshell, it is a work-camp mission trip in SC that works on making existing homes warm and dry. Youth ages 14+ head to a camp (our youth group currently goes to the J.E.T. and Pee Dee camps) and help out poverty stricken people.

Putting Life in Perspective

Day Away Spiritual Retreat for Adults

Saturday, April 13, Bruner Country Home, Depart: 9:00 a.m. Return: 5:00 p.m.

Jesus would often withdraw to a deserted place, alone or with his friends, even when concerns and overwhelming demands pressed all around him. Come away for a while. Enjoy a variety of group and solo experiences to help you connect with God and others on a deeper level. You'll be surprised at what a difference a day makes. When it comes to peace of mind, you're apt to find it spending time with people seeking God. There's no app for that.

- At the Bruner country home, in a secluded woodsy setting by a gorgeous pond, about 40 minutes from the church
- Guided discussions & activities, personal reflection time, delicious lunch, music, outdoor relaxation, listening to one another and to God. Fun, interesting, enlightening!

REGISTER by April 7, in the hallways or with Anne Cox, at acox@shandon-umc.org or 254-6695. Free retreat!

POMPEII, BY RICHARD HARRIS

Wednesday, April 10 Book Discussion – 6:00-7:00 p.m. (B-221)

In this suspenseful thriller, Harris recreates the days before the catastrophic eruption of Mt. Vesuvius in 79 AD that destroyed the cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum. The historical details of the ancient Roman culture are painstakingly researched. Each chapter begins with fascinating education about the causes and events during a volcanic eruption. The atmosphere - at first relaxed, then later full of fear - is built expertly through the story of Marcus Attilius Primus, an engineer responsible for the aqueduct in the area.

Please note that in April, we're meeting the 2nd Wednesday. Facilitator: Alix Hay. Meetings are usually 1st Wednesdays.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN MOTHER-DAUGHTER-FRIEND LUNCHEON Sunday, April 14 at 12:30 p.m. in Player Hall

Bring your Mother, Daughter, or a Friend and share your UMW with those you care about.
