MISSING MEMBERS

Paragraph 218 of the United Methodist Book of Discipline states, "Faithful membership in the local church is essential for personal growth and for developing a deeper commitment to the will and grace of God...."

...As members involve themselves in public and private prayer, worship, the sacraments, study, Christian action, systematic giving, and holy discipline, they grow in their appreciation of Christ, understanding of God at work in history, and the natural order, and an understanding of themselves."

Paragraph 219 carries the theme of faithful church membership further. It states, "Faithful discipleship includes the obligation to participate in the corporate life of the congregation with fellow members of the body of Christ. A member is bound in sacred covenant to shoulder the burdens, share the risks, and celebrate the joys of fellow members....."

But what does the church do when members become inactive in the church. The Book of Discipline outlines a two-year process that the church should follow. The church shall do all in its power to restore the inactive member. The church is to contact the member and request that the inactive member do one of four things:

1. Reaffirm their membership vows and return to active membership
2. Request transfer to another Methodist Church
3. Request transfer to a church of another denomination
4. Request withdrawal

If a member does not comply with any of these within a two year period the members name is removed from the church. Of course the ill or shut-ins are not identified as inactive members. In 2014, we began this process at Shandon, and we are continuing the process this year. If inactive members do not comply with the four choices above, their names will be removed from the roll at Charge Conference this fall.

If a member's address is not known, their names are to be published to the congregation for a two year period, and if the address does not become known those members are removed from the roll of the church.

Included in this issue of The Voice are the names of members for whom we do not have a current address. Please review this list carefully and if you know the address of any of these missing members, please report their correct address to Jennifer Cox at 256-8383, ext. 101 or email her at jcox@shandon-umc.org.

The Church has a moral and spiritual obligation to reach out to its non-participating members. - In Faith, Michael Guffee, Sr.
